

Sosua, Dominican Republic

Charming hotel close to beach and delights of Sosua  This is a well managed and profitable hotel ideally located in the centre of Sosua, The hotel is popular with both families and the independent traveller being so close to the centre of Sosua with its many attractions, bars, and restaurants. As you sit in the garden of this delightful hotel surrounded by the green vegetation and mature tree and palms you will be forgiven for thinking it has been here for decades. But you would be wrong, as it only opened its doors in November 2009. This hotel was conceived, designed, and built by the present owner who was on hand to oversee every inch of its six months development. So much thought and care went into every part of the hotel, even to the extent of reshaping the walls around the trunk of a sturdy palm tree that the owners wanted to preserve. The hotel has a rustic appeal with 21 individually themed rooms and murals depicting exotic flowers, beautiful birds and everyone
