Plot of land for sale in a hidden gated community

This plot of land for sale is in a hidden gated community, a hidden little gem I like to call it, it is only few minutes drive up into the hills of Sosua. This plot of land is 1,252 sq. m of land (or 13,471 sq.ft). You are allowed to build up to three stories high making it a perfect spot to build a 4-6 unit complex unit, or a nice sized villa. The backyard views are of tropical nature and it is quite serene. This gated community is special in the fact it doesn't charge you any monthly homeowners fee until your building of choice has been built. This plot of land is at very very good price compared to other gated communities, and it really is hidden which gives it its own originality and sense of seclusion. Please fill out the request box for further information and on how to view this plot of land.
