outskirts of Sosua and right before Cabarete, making it the ideal spot and only a 20 minute ride from the airport. Literally just steps outside of your door is a beautiful semi-private beach and the beautiful Atlantic ocean, there is also a large swimming pool and relaxing area for lounging. This two bedroom condo has just had a near full renovation with all new furniture and a 60 inch screen TV. Upon entering this cozy condo you will see a modern look of both furniture and in the kitchen, with freshly painted mahogany in a deep brown oak complimented by a smoky white granite counter top. Open up the large glass door and feel the fresh breeze and gaze into the ocean surrounded by the lush-green tropical vegetation and of course the palm trees. There are two bedrooms and two bathrooms, down the hall is the main bathroom (both bathrooms have been fully renovated). Then comes the master bedroom which is very spacious and has its own en suite bathroom. This beachfront gated community has two restaurants right on the beach, one is open in the day and the other at night, both with exquisite food that cater to near every diet. This community is truly a perfect fit for near anyone, couple or family. There are many expats who all know each other and it makes for that pleasant feeling of having a second home. There is also a spa, a yoga. Beach front condos for sale here on the north coast of the Dominican haven't been lasting very long on the market so hurry and make your appointment to view this once in a lifetime opportunity!
